

PLEASE. Delay the ruling on the FCC vote set for June 2nd. Why rush something of such great importance? This looks like a naked grab for power, rather than a careful, thoughtout decision. And the public is overwhelmingly opposing to the further consolidation of the media. PLEASE. Follow the will of the people. Do not do this, unless the message you want to send is that we are no longer a republic "for the people."